Since its inception in 1958 at The Judge Advocate General's School, U.S. Army, in Charlottesville, Virginia, the Military Law Review has encouraged a full and frank discussion of legislative, administrative, and judicial principles through a scholarly examination of the law and emerging legal precepts. In support of that mission, the Military Law Review publishes scholarly articles that are relevant to, and materially advance, the practice of law within the military.

The Military Law Review does not promulgate official policy. An article's content is the sole responsibility of that article's author, and the opinions and conclusions that are reflected in an article are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views of the U.S. Government, the Department of Defense, the Department of the Army, The Judge Advocate General's Corps, The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School, or any other governmental or non-governmental agency.

CITATION: Cite this issue of the Military Law Review as 229 MIL. L. REV. [page number] (2021).

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSIONS: The Military Law Review accepts manuscript submissions from military and civilian authors. Any work submitted for publication will be evaluated by the Military Law Review's Board of Editors. In determining whether to publish a work, the Board considers the work in light of the Military Law Review's mission and evaluates the work's argument, research, and style.

No minimum or maximum length requirements exist. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively from the beginning to the end of the manuscript rather than by section. Citations must conform to The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed. 2020) and the Military Citation Guide (23d ed. 2020). Submissions should include biographical data for each author, to include branch of service, duty title, present and prior positions or duty assignments, all degrees (with names of granting schools and years received), and previous publications. If submitting a lecture or paper prepared in partial fulfillment of degree requirements, the author should include the date and place of delivery of the lecture or the date and source of the degree.

Submissions must be in Microsoft Word format and should be sent via email to the Editor, Military Law Review, at usarmy.pentagon.hqda-tjaglcs.list.tjaglcs-mlr-editor1@mail.mil. If email is not available, please forward the double-spaced submission to the Editor, Military Law Review, Administrative and Civil Law Department, The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School, U.S. Army, 600 Massie Road, Charlottesville, Virginia 22903-1781.
