MEMORANDUM FOR Judge Advocate Officer Basic Course Students, The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School, Charlottesville, VA 22903

SUBJECT: Policy Memorandum # 02-24, Housing Policy

1. All Judge Advocate Officer Basic Course (JAOBC) students will reside in Army Lodging at The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center and School (TJAGLCS) while attending JA OBC in Charlottesville.
2. If the class size exceeds the number of available rooms, the Student Detachment Cadre, in conjunction with Army Lodging personnel, will make alternate lodging arrangements at a local hotel. At no time will a student make their own lodging arrangements for JA OBC.
3. Absent an exception to policy (ETP), all students will be housed in a standard room at TJAGLCS or a studio room at a local hotel as described in paragraphs 1 and 2. The maximum occupancy for these rooms is two adults. A limited number of junior suites are available at TJAGLCS with a maximum occupancy of four. Junior suites, if available, will be assigned to students based on family size and special circumstances, which must be annotated on the JA OBC in-processing sheet.
4. Additional Guests. Students are solely responsible for the behavior of their guests. Family member(s) may stay with the student without an ETP if they do not exceed the maximum occupancy of the room. For example, a student's spouse may reside at TJAGLCS with the student in a standard room without an ETP. However, if the student desires to reside with their spouse and a child, an ETP is required. Any charges incurred for additional occupants in the room are non-reimbursable and the responsibility of the student.
5. Before requesting an exception to stay in anything other than a standard TJAGLCS room, you must call the Lodging Desk at (434) 972-6452 to confirm the rate for your requested room. National Guard students seeking an ETP must first provide the rates for their requested room to their Unit Administrator (UA) and attach the UA's written approval to their ETP.
6. Exceptions to this policy will be considered on a case-by-case basis. An exception to policy memorandum must be forwarded through the Student Detachment Executive
