

Upcoming Courses and Training Opportunities

47th Administrative Law for Military Operations Course – 7-10 February 2023

The 47th Administrative Law for Military Organizations (ALMO) course, hosted by the Administrative and Civil Law Department (ADA) at TJAGLCS, will take place in Charlottesville, Virginia from 7-10 February 2023. This course is open to military and civilian attorneys employed by the Department of Defense who work (or are pending assignments) in administrative and civil law. The course is also open to military and civilian paralegals who manage administrative or civil law offices or perform duties in supervisory positions requiring knowledge of these areas of law. More information can be found here.

17th Army Special Victim Counsel Certification Course – 13-17 February 2023

The 17th Army Special Victims' Counsel (SVC) Certification will be held at TJAGLCS from 13-17 February 2023. The certification course is primarily intended for Active-Duty Army Judge Advocates who will assume SVC duties between December 2022 and June 2023. The deadline for nominations was 31 December 2022. Please send any late submissions to the Special Victim Program ASAP. More information can be found here.

Advocacy Center Classified Litigation Course – 13-17 February 2023

This is an introductory course with a practice-oriented approach for trial and defense counsel, chiefs of justice, paralegals, and military judges. The application deadline was 18 January 2023. More information can be found here.

Legal Functional Community Centralized Funding for Attorney Training Opportunities

The Professional Services Career Field, Legal Functional Community announces centralized funding for a limited number of Competitive Professional Development (CPD) opportunities available to Army civilian attorneys. The Environmental Law 2023 Course will be held from 16-17 February 2023, and the FLRA Law Week will be held from 1-5 May 2023. For more information, including application procedures, please contact Ms. Sarilyn Leary.

USAR Legal Command FY23 Regional Collective Training – Southeast – 24-26 February 2023

The US Army Reserve Legal Command FY23 Regional Collective Training – Southeast will be held from 24-26 February 2023 at ARMEDCOM Pinellas Park, Florida. Please keep an eye out for the official invitation memorandum and updates!

72nd National Security and Law of Armed Conflict Course – 27 February – 10 March 2023

This course is designed to educate junior officers to succeed in national security law assignments, whether in garrison or in a deployed environment. The target audience is junior to mid-grade CPTs who are currently in, or will soon start, their first national security law assignment, or are otherwise preparing for upcoming deployments or exercises. Registration deadline is 13 January 2023. More information can be found here.

2023 USSPACECOM Legal Conference – 28 February – 2 March 2023

The third annual United States Space Command Legal Conference will be held in Colorado Springs from 28 February - 2 March 2023. This year's conference is oriented at law and policy issues associated with cooperation in space operations. The conference is presented in partnership with the United States Air Force Academy's Law, Technology, and Warfare Research Cell. More information can be found here.

USAR Legal Command FY23 Western Region Collective Training – 14-16 April 2023

Please join the 75th Legal Operations Detachment for the USAR Legal Command FY23 Western Region Collective Training, from 14-16 April 2023 Los Angeles Air Force Base, Los Angeles, CA. Registration and information will be posted on JAGU NLT 15 February 2023. More information can be found here.