

NSL-P Enrollment

What (Course Name): NATIONAL SECURITY LAW - PRIMER (NSL-P)

Course Number: 512-27D40-DL

Course Hours: 55

Course Type: Functional. Courses listed in ATRRS are authorized promotion points at the rate of four promotion points per week (defined as 40 training hours) of military training. Students must contact their S1/G1 to update promotion point worksheet. Courses may take up to 12 days to populate from the date of course completion to the automated promotion point worksheet for promotion points. The Soldier must have record of full course completion and the total credit hours for the entire course will be divided by five to determine promotion points. No points will be awarded for sub-course completion.

ERB/ARB updates adding NSL-P are made through eMILPO (RA) or USAR systems. TDD is currently working with TRADOC to add the course in eMILPO and USAR systems.

When (Course start/end dates): Students may enroll into the course at any time. Once enrolled, students have 60 days to complete the entire course.

Phase: No Phase

POC Information: MSG Ericca Cole, ericca.o.cole.mil@mail.mil, Office: (434) 971-3223, Distance Learning Instructor/Developer, Training Developments Directorate, The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center & School, 600 Massie Road, Charlottesville, VA 22903

Who (Prerequisites): Successfully completed Advance Individual Training (AIT). Serve in an operational law position and or deploying. The course prepares skill level 2 and 3 paralegals to develop, master and refine key skills that will enhance their ability to assist Judge Advocates and command teams in the operational environment. Soldier must not be flagged for failure to meet height/weight and/or Army Physical Fitness Test standards to attend training.

Where (Location/enrollment): To self-enroll in NSL-P students use ATRRS website via <https://www.atrrs.army.mil/> and click on COURSE CATALOG, then type in the COURSE NUMBER box "512-27D40-DL" (without the quotation marks), and click on SEARCH THE ATRRS COURSE CATALOG. A new page will load, click on the COURSE number, it is a hyperlink (it is underlined) and a new page will load with available class dates. In the far left column, the word REGISTER next to available class numbers and dates. Next to whichever class you would like to register for, simply click on the word REGISTER, it is a hyperlink (it is underlined). Students are required to login using a CAC. Once logged in, students must update their unit information and the rest is self-explanatory. If students experience any issues with enrollment, they should submit a help desk ticket through JAGU. To access the help desk and the course, log directly into JAGU (preferably using Firefox or Google Chrome web browsers) at <https://jagu.army.mil/> (turn off compatibility view to load in explorer).

Why (Readiness): NSL-P provides paralegal Noncommissioned Officers with knowledge and understanding of a full spectrum of National Security Law in an innovative distance learning environment focusing on legal concepts, analysis, and application. NSL-P cover the following topics: law of armed conflict, non-international armed conflict, legal basis for the use of force, rules of engagement, peace keeping; Noncombatant evacuation operations, dislocated civilians, Intelligence and interrogation operations, cyber and space operation, foreign claims, domestic operation, fiscal law, Army operations, and targeting.

Special Information:

The National Security Law Primer Course is an educational prerequisites for the NSL Personnel Development Skill Identifiers (PDSI). For information on additional PDSI requirement, please reach out to the 27D Proponent SGM, SGM Joseph Bannan at joseph.p.bannan.mil@mail.mil or the 27D Senior Career Advisor, MSG Shamar Purdie at shamar.d.purdie.mil@mail.mil.

For additional NSL-P information go to Information for School 681 on ATRRS, contact the Training Developments Directorate (TDD), at (434) 971-3223, DSN 521, or visit our website <http://www.jagcnet.army.mil/TJAGLCS>.